About Us

Amsale Aberra

Amsale Aberra is the founding attorney of Amsale Aberra Law, PLLC. As an immigrant from Ethiopia herself, she is fully aware of the complexities of U.S. laws, including immigration law. Amsale thus makes every effort to provide exceptional and compassionate service to her clients nationwide. She worked with the U.N. high commissioner for refugees, Johns Hopkins University, and Northwest Immigrant Rights Project to assist clients in their asylum-based application, family-based immigration petition, and waiver of inadmissibility. Amsale also worked as a legal extern for Program for Appropriate Technology in Health (PATH), an international, nonprofit global health organization based in Seattle, WA. Amsale drafted and reviewed numerous legal agreements, including Trade Service Agreements and Service Subscription Agreements, and she also conducted a number of research projects in the area of United States corporate and patent laws.
