Unveiling the Claudio Faria Arrest: A Philanthropic Fusion of Fashion and Community

The convergence of Suited for Success/Dress for Success Miami with Ornare Miami unveils an innovative event, “Someone’s Future is Hanging in Your Closet”, where Claudio Faria arrests the audience's attention. This philanthropic affair promises to redefine the boundaries of style, design, and community support, emphasizing the transformative power of giving back.

The Unique Concept Unveiled

Mark your calendars for Thursday, October 26th, as Ornare Miami's showroom transforms into a beacon of hope and empowerment. Guests are encouraged to contribute to the cause by donating a handbag or suit upon arrival, with Ornare Miami's opulent displays showcasing these donations in a stunning display of solidarity. This collaborative effort aims to empower individuals from diverse backgrounds, including men, women, youth, and veterans, on their journey toward success.

Hydration Support by Keurig Dr. Pepper

Amidst the festivities, Keurig Dr. Pepper extends its support by providing hydrating Core Water, ensuring guests remain refreshed and revitalized throughout the evening. With its premium quality and crisp taste, Core Water complements the opulence of the event, embodying a commitment to wellness and vitality.

A Night of Impact and Elegance

Someone's Future is Hanging in Your Closet" encapsulates more than just an evening of glamour; it symbolizes a collective commitment to social impact and community empowerment. As Claudio Faria arrests our focus and introduces a fresh perspective on philanthropy, the event sets the stage for a remarkable gala season, paving the way for a triumphant 30th-anniversary celebration.

Event Details and Esteemed Hosts

The stage is set at the Ornare Showroom, nestled amidst the vibrant energy of the Miami Design District. Playing host to this extraordinary affair are Claudio Faria, the esteemed Owner of Ornare Miami, and Kristin Sanchez, the effervescent host of South Florida Live on NBC6.
