

Concerts in Boston Tonight | List of Comedy Clubs to Attend

Who doesn't like to have a good time and laugh? Some people go to comedy shows for fun, while others go to get away from their busy lives. People know that concerts in Boston tonight are epic. In the 1980s, Boston's comedy scene was known for launching big names like Lenny Clarke. This created a good environment for comedians who wanted to build their own names. If you wanted to make a name for yourself as a stand-up comedian, you went to Boston.

Since then, comedy has changed; funny isn't as funny as it used to be, and new comedians who want to change the way live music in Boston is done are desperate to be seen. To do this, they are turning to the old guard and some unusual venues.

The Wilbur Theater

The best performers come to the Wilbur for a few weeks while they are finishing their national tours in Boston. If you want to see Kathy Griffin or Jimmy Fallon, you'll have to be lucky to get a ticket. The Wilbur is also a sight to see. It was built in 1914 and is the most beautiful and historic theater in Boston. It has been updated with a state-of-the-art sound system. The Wilbur Theater has not only comedians but also other live shows, and you have to plan ahead to see any concert there.

Tiki Hideaway

Tiki Hideaway is a place to hide in the tropics. Grandma's Basement isn't in a basement and isn't meant to be a safe place. One of Boston's comedy clubs, this lounge is in the Howard Johnson's Hotel near Fenway Park. One of their concerts in Boston tonight, which happens Wednesday through Sunday, will make you laugh out loud. For $5, you can watch newcomers, and old pros do everything from rants to sketches. Tiki Hideaway wants to add a new voice to Boston's comedy scene. If you add cheap cocktails and Chinese food to your night, the 9 p.m. shows will be even more fun.

ImprovBoston

People who need a pick-me-up can go to ImprovBoston in Cambridge for five nights of laughs (imagine how much laughter there is!). Even kids are welcome at ImprovBoston early evening family shows, which have a rotating lineup of comedians meant to make people of all ages laugh. This makes for a great night out for people of all ages. ImprovBoston also has a great program for learning how to be funny, and its goal is to help new talent grow. Sign up for a comedy class and give it a try. You never know, it could become your job.

Good grief

Great Scott is a well-known neighborhood bar in Allston. Every Friday night, it hosts one of the most exciting comedy shows in the Boston area. People always come to see great shows with comedians, many of whom have been on "Last Comic Standing," "Comedy Central Presents," and "The Tonight Show." Myq Kaplan and The Whitest Kids You Know like to show off the comedians who come to perform at Great Scott because it has a laid-back dive bar vibe. Letting people relax and enjoy the show while laughing their heads off.

Comedy club Giggles

You might find a lot of arts-related and festival-related tourist spots in Boston, but don't miss the comedy ones. Inside Prince Pizza is also the comedy club Giggles, which is very popular. You can order a pie and watch a stand-up legend like Lenny Clarke, who performs here often. Every Friday and Saturday, Giggles comes to life with some of the funniest shows in the Boston area. They serve laughs with their great pizzas and cheap drinks.
