The handicraft industry in Nepal, as per the Federation of Handicraft Association of Nepal (FHAN), provides employment to over one million people, making it one of the biggest employers in the nation. Additionally, it accounts for over 2% of the nation's GDP and is a substantial contributor to Nepal's foreign exchange earnings.

The economic impact of handicraft export from Nepal is not limited to just employment and GDP. The industry also plays a critical role in preserving traditional Nepali culture and heritage. The skills and knowledge passed down through generations of artisans are essential for the continuation of Nepal's cultural identity.

Furthermore, handicraft export has helped to promote tourism in Nepal. Tourists are drawn to the country's unique and beautiful handicrafts, creating a demand for authentic Nepali handicrafts and contributing to the country's economy.
